

Dear Collaborator,

It is with great joy and enthusiasm that we welcome you to this seminar under the inspiring theme:

All together, Empowering Excellence in Africa !
Tous ensemble, renforçons l'excellence en Afrique !

This event brings together 127 collaborators, including 10 managers, representing 19 countries from Francophone, Anglophone Africa, and the Maghreb, as well as 17 colleagues from the headquarters.

We are also honored to have among us Mr. Arnaud GOBET, our President, Thierry LAVIGNE, General Director, and Milad ABOU-GERGI, Executive Director of Medications. Their presence reflects the strategic importance of this seminar and their commitment to collective success.

The year 2024 has been exceptional, marked by remarkable achievements and significant developments. These outstanding results are a testament to the dedication and determination of each and every one of you.

Thanks to your efforts in the field, Innotech International Laboratories has established itself today as a recognized leader in key markets.

This seminar has been designed to be interactive and engaging, with a program specially crafted for you: exchange sessions, collaborative workshops, and moments of sharing aimed at stimulating ideas, strengthening synergies, and inspiring actions.

We encourage you to actively participate, ask questions, and explore the opportunities for learning and collaboration that lie ahead.

We are looking forward to experiencing these exceptional moments TOGETHER and seeing our FORCES unite to achieve EXCELLENCE!

Warm regards,

The Entire Team at Innotech International Laboratories
